1. PURPOSE

This Remuneration Policies and Procedures set out pertinent remuneration principles and guidelines for the Board of Directors (comprising Executive Directors and Non-Executive Directors) (“Board”) of the Company and senior management of the Company and its subsidiaries (“Group”).

The Remuneration Policies and Procedures are designed to:

- create a remuneration structure that is competitive so as to attract, reward, motivate and retain Directors and senior management who lead the Company towards realising its business strategies and long-term objectives;
- provide transparency, clarity and an independent process on compensating Executive Directors and senior management, taking into account their experience, knowledge, extent of responsibility and individual performance, including the performance of the Group and prevailing market and industry statistics; and
- provide a structured basis in determining the remuneration of Non-Executive Directors, which is commensurate with the responsibilities of the Non-Executive Directors, for example their involvement and contribution both in the Board and Board Committees, including attendance at meetings.

The Remuneration Policies and Procedures are structured based on the following key principles:

- the remuneration shall be set at levels that are competitive with the relevant market and industry with the aim of attracting and retaining talents as part of the Company’s succession plan;
- the performance measures and targets shall be aligned with shareholders’ interest in mind;
- provide an appropriate level of transparency to ensure the policy for the remuneration of Directors and senior management is understood by investors;
- the Company’s performance in managing material sustainability risks and opportunities;
- the remuneration and incentives for independent directors should not conflict with their obligation in bringing objectivity and independent judgment on matters discussed; and
- ensure a level of fairness and consistency in remuneration.

2. LEVEL AND MAKE-UP OF REMUNERATION

The Group has adopted the objective as recommended by the code to determine the remuneration of the directors so as to ensure that the Company attracts and retains the Directors needed to run the group successfully. This policy and procedures aim to ensure that members of the Board are rewarded fairly for their respective individual contributions to the Group. The component parts of their remuneration structured so as to link rewards to corporate and individual performance in the case of Executive Directors. In the case of Non-Executive Directors, the level of remuneration reflects the level of responsibilities undertaken by the individual Non-Executive Director concerned.

3. PROCEDURE

The RC is responsible for recommending to the Board the policy framework on terms of employment and on all elements of the Directors' remuneration and remuneration package for the Executive Directors and key senior management. The RC is authorised to review and recommend the annual bonus and salary increment of the Executive Directors and senior management of the Company. Directors' Remuneration is decided by the Board with the Director concerned abstaining from deliberations and voting accordingly. The RC may receive advice from external consultants, if required. It's nevertheless, the ultimate responsibility of the Board to approve the remuneration of these Directors.

4. THE RC SHALL:

- i) Ensure that Director, whether executive or non-executive, should abstain from discussion and from participating in decision of their remuneration packages.
- ii) Recommend and advise the Board of Directors the remuneration and terms of conditions (and where appropriate, severance payments) of Executive Directors.
- iii) Recommend to the Board the level, composition and periodic review of Directors' Remuneration.
- iv) Seek comparative information on remuneration and conditions of service in comparable organisations and market practice.
- v) When considering severance payments, the RC should bear in mind that it must represent the public interest and avoid any inappropriate use of public funds. Care should be taken to avoid determining a severance package that public might deem to be excessive.
- vi) Consider that the determination of the remuneration packages of Non-Executive Directors (whether in addition to or in lieu of their fees as directors) is a matter for the Board as a whole.
- vii) Review and recommend to the Board of any extra remuneration to be paid to any Directors who is appointed to any executive office or serves on any committee or who otherwise performs or renders services, which in the opinion of the Directors are outside his ordinary duties as a Director of the Company.
- viii) Ensure that fees payable to Directors shall not be increased except pursuant to a resolution passed at a general meeting, where notice of the proposed increase has been given in the notice concerning the meeting.
- ix) Provide the Board with the opportunity to review, prior to implementation, the composition of any management incentive scheme.
- x) Provide the Board with the opportunity, to review, prior to implementation, the nature, composition and eligibility for any employee share option scheme.

The Executive Directors and senior management are paid a fixed remuneration, consisting of base salary, allowances and other benefits such as company car and fuel allowance, contribution to the Employees Provident Fund, insurance and medical benefits.

The remuneration package of the Directors is as follows:

i) Basic Salary

The basic salary for the Executive Directors and key senior management are recommended by the RC, taking into account the individual performance, the consumer price index and information from independent sources on the rates of salary for similar positions in other comparable companies. The salary is reviewed annually. The salary payable pursuant to a contract of service need not be determined by the Company in general meeting but such salary and emoluments may not include a commission on or percentage of turnover of the Company.

ii) Fees

The Directors shall be paid by way of fees for their services, such fixed sums (if any) as shall from time to time be determined by an ordinary resolution of the Company in general meeting and shall (unless such resolution otherwise provide) be divisible among the Directors as they may agree, or, failing agreement, equally, except that any Director who shall be entitled only to rank in such division for a proportion of the fees related to the period during which he has held office.

The fees payable to Non-Executive Directors shall be paid by a fixed sum and not by a commission on or percentage of profits or turnover.

iii) Bonus Scheme

The Group operates a bonus scheme for all employees, including the Executive Directors and key senior management. The criteria for the scheme is dependent on the level of profits achieved from certain aspects of the Group's business activities as measured against targets, together with an assessment of each individual's performance during the period. Bonuses payable to the Executive Director are reviewed by the RC and approved by the Board.

2. PRINCIPLES AND OBJECTIVES

The Group strictly adheres to the practice of non-discrimination of any form, whether based on race, age, religion and gender throughout the organisation, which includes the selection of Board members. The Board encourages a dynamic and diverse composition of members by nurturing suitable and potential candidates equipped with competency, skills, experience, good character, time commitment, integrity and other qualities in meeting the future needs of the Company.

The objectives of this Policy are to have a Board which:

- is characterised by a broad range of viewpoints rather than just diversity in skills and experience; diversity in viewpoints would exist if there are diversity in gender, nationality, age, culture and socio-economic backgrounds; and
- has sustainable development as its core value, thus promoting the interests of all our stakeholders, particularly the long-term interests of our shareholders, fairly and effectively.

3. SCOPE & POLICIES

The Board considers that the concept of diversity incorporates a number of different aspects, such as professional experiences, business experiences, skills, knowledge, gender, age, ethnicity and educational background.

(a) Board Mix

The Board shall include a balanced composition of Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Non-Executive Directors to promote a strong element of independence in the Board. The Independent Non-Executive Directors shall be of sufficient calibre and standing, for their views to carry weight.

(b) Skills and Experience

The Board shall possess a balance of appropriate skills for the requirements of the business of the Company. The Directors shall have a mix of financial, legal, management and other backgrounds which when working in synergy, could provide the Company with considerable experience in a wide range of activities.

The Directors should have the capacity and competency to tackle questions and deliberate on sustainability, as well as evaluate the sustainability risks and opportunities, and make informed decisions on the matter.

(c) Gender

The Board takes cognisance of the recommendation of the Malaysian Government to have at least 30% women as decision makers in corporate sector. The Company shall endeavour to increase female representation on the Board if there are appropriate candidates available when Board vacancies arise.

(d) Ethnicity/Nationality

The Company aspires to have a board of directors of different nationality or ethnic backgrounds who can contribute their knowledge and understanding of the business, industry and environment.

(e) Age

The Board is fully committed to promote age diversity, valuing the contribution of its members regardless of age, and seeks to eliminate age stereotyping and discrimination.

4. MEASURABLE OBJECTIVES

This Policy framework for the Group is aimed towards achieving the following objectives:

1. Selection of candidates will be based on a range of diversity perspectives, including but not limited to, professional experiences, business experiences, skills, knowledge, gender, age, ethnicity, educational background and sufficient understanding and knowledge of sustainability issues that are relevant to the Company and its business, to discharge its role effectively. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contributions that the selected candidates will bring to the Board. The Board's composition (including gender, ethnicity and age) will be disclosed in the Corporate Governance Overview Statement or the Corporate Governance Report annually.
2. The Board acknowledges the importance of promoting gender diversity. Hence, the normal selection criteria based on an effective blend of competencies, skills, extensive experience and knowledge to strengthen the Board remains a priority.

5. MONITORING AND REPORTING

1. Pursuant to the Term of Reference, the NC is (amongst other) responsible for:
 - reviewing, recommending and considering candidates to the Board and committees of the Board;
 - assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and the contribution of each individual Directors on an on-going basis; and
